" a book of remembrances "

"THEN THOSE WHO FEARED THE LORD SPOKE TO ONE ANOTHER, AND THE LORD GAVE ATTENTION AND HEARD IT, AND A BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE WAS WRITTEN BEFORE HIM FOR THOSE WHO FEAR THE LORD AND WHO ESTEEM HIS NAME."

1973-74 is unique . . . it is now. Never again will there be assembled here the same persons, the same circumstances, the same events. Our time together deserves remembrance. The yearbook staff has set itself to the task of writing a book by which to remember the school year 73-74 at Western Bible Institute.

So it is that we have chosen and approved a new name for our yearbook, ZIKKARON. Taken from Malachi 3:16, zikkaron (si̊-kȧ-rōn') is the Hebrew word for Book of Remembrance.

The book written before the Lord included specifically the conversation of those who feared Him. Our book is expanded somewhat to include the fellowship, i.e., thought, speech, action, of those gathered here for a time of learning of Him and service for Him.

That God's attention is focused on every detail of our lives should make us careful, humble and reverent before Him.

ZIKKARON STAFF, 1973-74

Dear Student:

" . . . WALK WORTHY of the VOCATION wherewith you are called, with all lowliness and meekness with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love; endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace." (Eph. 4:1-3)

Our vocation or calling is that free invitation received from God to partake in the privileges of the Gospel of Christ and to become His sons and daughters.

We are told by the Apostle here how we walk worthily of our vocation. We must walk in lowliness or in humility of mind. We are to walk in meekness which is the opposite of anger or irritability of disposition. Our walk is to be with longsuffering or that longmindedness which never permits a trial or provication to get to the end of our patience. And, our walk must forbear one another or that delicate, faithful caring for one another.

My desire for the Western Bible Institute family: students, staff, faculty and administration is that we WALK WORTHY of that calling in which we are called!

Until He Comes,

Adrian L. House
President

Dedication

"Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than themselves. Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others" (Phil. 2:2-4).

!!Mr. Martin!!

We thank you for the love you've shown. We thank you for teaching each of us the value of such love. We thank you for that Saturday evening when your family was together for the first time in a long while . . . the evening you left them to help us with the annual . . . . For these reasons and many, many more . . .

!!WE DEDICATE ZIKKARON TO YOU!!

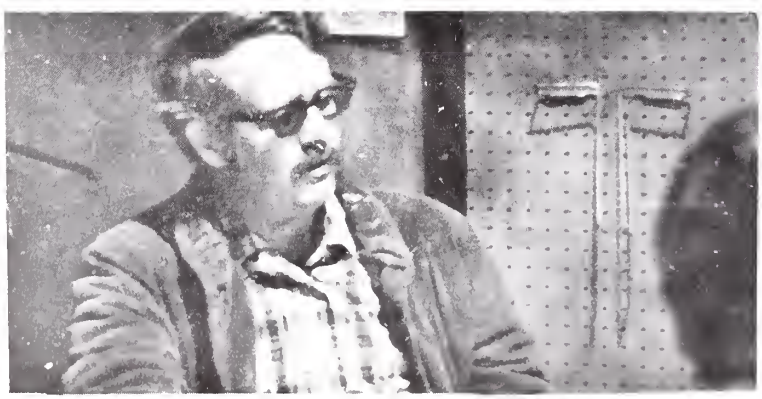
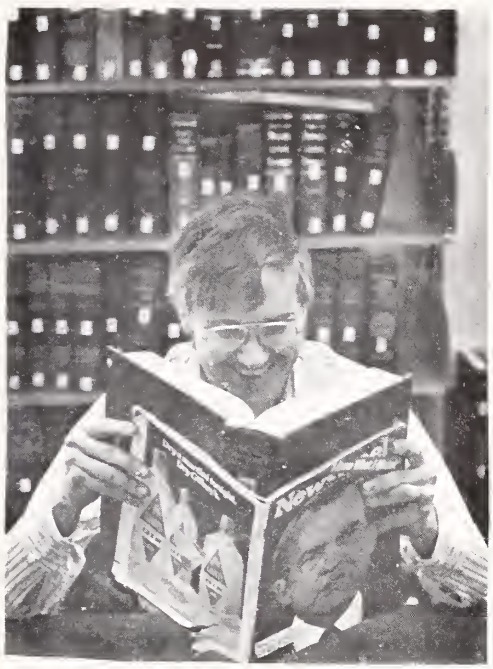
I am one of the senoirs who has been privileged to spend nine or more semesters at W.B.I. Having spent time at four different institutions of higher education, I would have to admit that academically Western is tougher than any of the other three. As such the drop-out rate is not surprising, though nonetheless it is disturbing. I would encourage all attending W.B.I. to "stick to it" simply because the more one appropriates of what is available here, the better tool he will be for God to use.

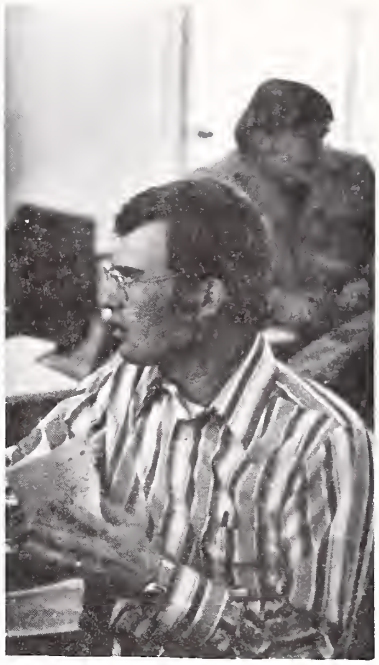




Mark Carlton

When I came to Western I thought I knew just about everything about the Bible that could be known. (I am a pastor's son and a possessor of the ego that generally is associated with P.K.s). I soon was set straight; by mid-term I had more F's than the word "flesff." By the end of the first year I had managed to pull a D+ average, and I was given one semester to bring the grades up or get out. By God's grace I've gotten by well since. During my junior year while studying Hebrews, I realized that I was lost. During second semester (March 19, 1973) I received Christ as my personal Savior. This was the highlight of my years at Western. My wife and I plan to serve the Lord as missionaries to England after I graduate. We are thankful for our years at Western and for the friends God has blessed us with since we came.

Don Courville



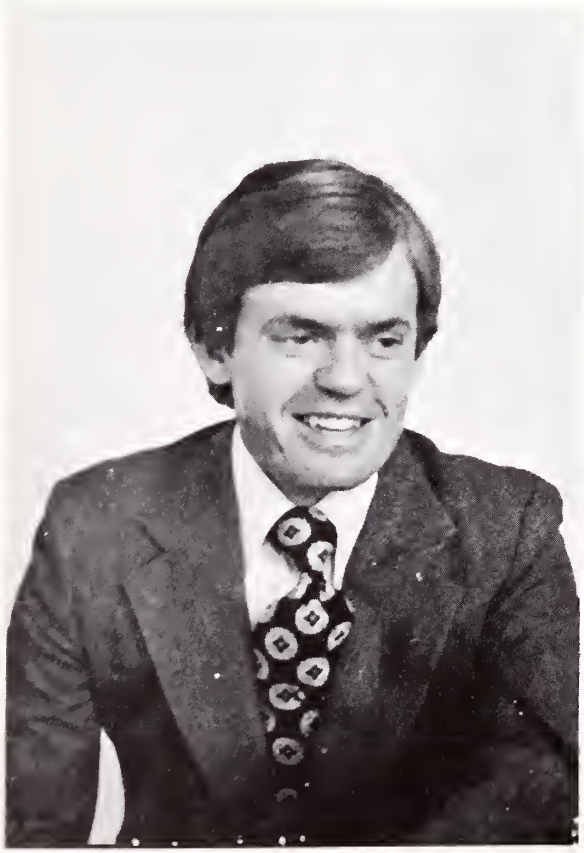
I have found my years here at Western to be very profitable in many ways. One way has been the continuing process of the Lord deepening my trust in Him, especially in small areas. I feel that it's easier to trust in the Lord for the big areas rather than for the small. Discouragements are easier to turn over to Him now than two years ago.

The teaching ministry of the faculty has also helped my growth. I am appreciative of their diligence and effort in investing their lives in me. I feel that these two years at Western have been a definite advantage to my better serving Jesus Christ.

John Genz

I enrolled at Western Bible Institute in the fall of 1969. I am now looking forward to graduating in the spring of 1974. I give praise and thanks to God for the mercy and grace which he has so abundantly lavished these past five years. This life in Jesus Christ has only begun! "For the Lord God is a sun and shield: the Lord will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly."

Psa. 94:11



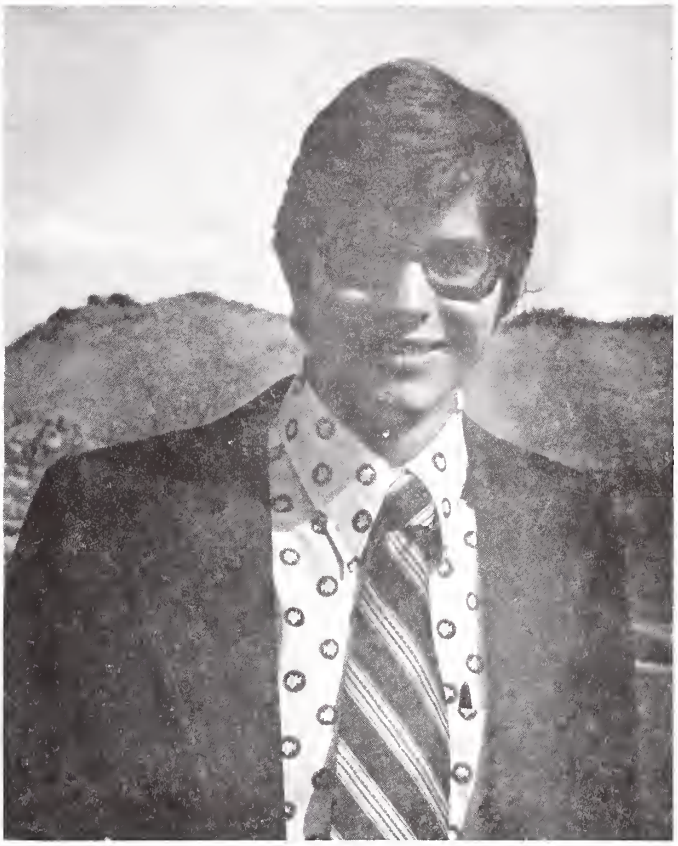
Melody Jobman

"Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on thee, because he trusteth in thee." Isa. 26:3. We were somewhat less than peaceful in the realization that five days from the opening of school we had neither job nor home. The process of relocating in Morrison from Fort Collins was interspersed with indecision and weeks of camp counseling. Through it we sought confirmation that Western was God's will for us. In the past two years He has demonstrated this many times over in providing every need and heaping blessings more in abundance. Many of the joys have come from developing fellowship and love with other students at school.

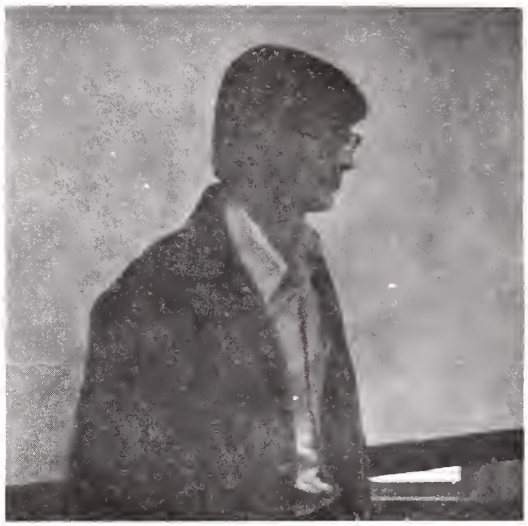
"Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:" Phil 1:6. This work includes God's leading after graduation. The Lord will clearly guide us into His service.

Eddie Jones

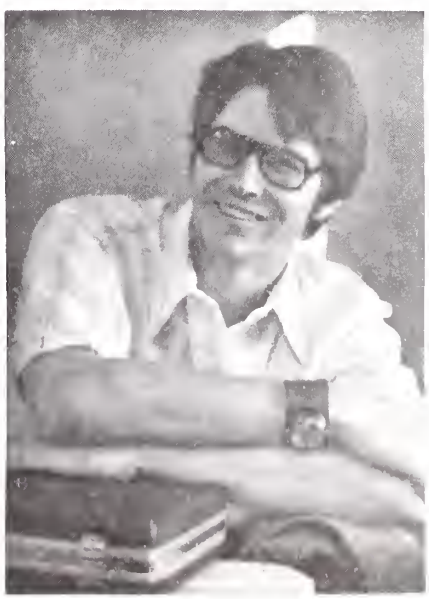
The closer I came to God while at Western, the more aware I was of my sinfulness and my need to utterly focus my attention on Jesus Christ. Because there is nothing in me that attracts the acceptance of God, only my substitute, Jesus Christ, is my basis for acceptance before the Father.



Alan Litz



Life is not easy; not even four years at Western. But we can finish our lives and hear our Master say, "Well done.", if all our life we keep our eyes on our goal - Jesus Christ.



Joyce Looney

The lesson that the Lord has impressed upon me most while I've been here at Western is how I should trust Him more. It isn't always easy to trust Him, but I know that He will continue to bring things into my life that will teach me to trust my Master more.

Here's a poem that really means alot to me:

I do not know what still awaits
Or what the morrow brings;
But with the glad salute of faith,
I hail its opening wings!

For this I know - that in my Lord
Shall all my needs be met;
And I can trust the heart of Him
Who has not failed me yet.

Marvel McGuire

In the fall of 1968 a young girl from Lexington, Nebraska, hailed the campus of Western Bible Institute full of anticipation of what Bible school would hold for her. This girl was Marvel Tedrow. In just a few hours I had a job and a number of new friends to help ease the parting pains of leaving family and friends behind.

I enrolled on the Sacred Music Minor and music played a great roll during my four years at Western. In June following my third year of school I became Mrs. Mike McGuire. Later while serving in an assistant pastorate in Lexington, Nebraska, another member was added to our family, Michele. I am thankful for God's strength through Christ to enable me to be a student, wife and mother during my years at Western.

Jim Miller

After four years at W.B.I. the one sure thing I've learned is this: the Christian life is a process, and this process involves diligent discipline daily. One of the greatest pitfalls of any bible school student is that of becoming so academic that we lose our practical walk. One of the biggest blessings is that of ministering to the Body of Christ at school and learning how to work within it. Of course, the greatest blessing and the thing I will take with me in remembering W.B.I., is that of coming to know more fully the the Lord Jesus Christ through His Word.

Belinda Spilman

You know, the gate is a good place to head for when you're down. So, one night last week (in March) that's where I went. On the way back I started thinking of each building here on campus. Many people complain about the buildings here at Western, and I must admit that I have been caught in this too, but as I look back over the last four years, I give God thanks for each one of them. I can hear it now . . . WHY? Well, really it's not the walls or the floor, but the many, many people God allowed me to meet under their roofs. The people I lived with, ate with, studied the Word of God with. The people I shared my life with. I thank God for each thing they've added, for each rough edge they've sanded off. I Thess. 5:24 has been the verse that has meant the most to me this year. As I have waited for the Lord to show me what He wants for my future. "Faithful is He who calls you, and He also will bring it to pass." He has called me, He will work it all out.

Larry Whitson

My years at Western have been a mixture of observing and learning. I have learned in the classes because each was informative and a challenge. I think the greatest enjoyment that I have had at Western is watching people change as the Word of God enters their hearts. I also thank God for the faculty and the wise counsel that they give to students. Each time I needed help I found good advice and an open, concerned counsellor. I also thank God for each student because each person changes us and through them God makes us grow. I am thankful for the time I have been here and am somewhat sorry to see it pass.

"No greater challenge has ever been offered to me and my family by our Heavenly Father than that of ministering at Western Bible Institute. It is my heartfelt desire according to the divine will of God that I pour my life into Western and its students. My greatest incentive in coming to Western was the challenge of seeing young lives molded for Jesus Christ, and insuring that they left school able to minister effectively."

President House, who is also the father of three growing boys, Mark, age 11, Torrey, age 8, and Paul, age 7, commented on his future in this way: "I would like to spend the rest of my ministry here at Western. It is a difficult job and I need its challenge all the time to keep me effective. Western holds a new challenge for me each passing day. I'm sure the future holds the same."

What a privilege it is, year after year, to see students come to be taught from the Word of God, grow up in the unsearchable riches of our Lord Jesus Christ; and then, after three or four years, find His will for their lives in fields which are white already to harvest where they shall be able to teach others also and see how He uses them!

"Now the end of our instruction is love out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned" (Tim. 1:5).

The Lord of Lords and King of Kings was also the Servant of Servants. Because of His clear perspective of the spiritual life, Jesus Christ understood that genuine leadership is developed through serving others. The greater the servant the greater the leader. I shall always be grateful to Western Bible Institute . . . and especially its students for the opportunity they have given me to learn this principle.

Western Bible Institute provides an opportunity for many people to invest and share in the work of the Lord. The Development Office provides a variety of programs, such as annuities, trusts, life income agreements, and development notes. Little drops of water, little grains of sand,
Make the mighty ocean and the pleasant land.
Thus the little minutes, humble though they be,
Make the mighty ages of eternity.
-- Julius A. Fletcher Carney

What better words than these can describe this past year at W.B.I.? The classes rambled on slowly; the semesters were never over soon enough. But like tiny drops of water falling into a bucket, this year is over and we already wonder how it slipped by so fast!

Many of you have already forgot what lies behind, but you worry about what tomorrow will bring - whether you will be able to do all those things you have thought about or how you will be able to best serve and glorify Christ. Worrying about tomorrow and what it may bring, of course, is not a proper biblical injunction. And we should again search God's Word for our answer. Jesus tells us to " . . . seek first (God's) kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things shall be yours as well. Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow . . . Let the day's own trouble be sufficient for the day " Matthew 6:33-34).

God will give us new privileges and responsibilities as the summer approaches, so let's use the most of every hour and day for Him. " . . . for we walk by faith, not by sight," says Paul again (II Corinthians 5:7). Find fulfilment in every present moment by trusting God in every present moment! May the Lord bless you as you embark on this exciting and wonderful journey.

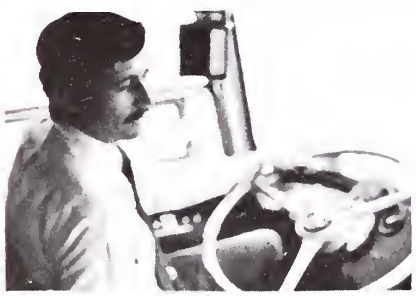
This year the Western Bible Institute Chorale was composed of 37 eager kids from Alaska to Texas, Illinois to California. Following the trend of years past, more than two-thirds of the chorale was made up of freshmen.

Our director this year was a witty young man by the name of Ron Foote from Spirit Lake, Iowa. Part of his wittiness can be attributed to the fact that he comes from a family of three and one half dozen (actually only 9 kids).



At this writing we have returned rejoicing from the annual tour which took us into Colorado, Nebraska, Kansas, Wyoming, South Dakota and Montana.

Master's Madrigal

Shekina

The hand of the Lord worked in a very definite way to assemble a very unlikely combination of people to form a singing group named "Shekinah." "Shekinah" consists of five girls and five guys, all with different backgrounds, different personalities, and different goals. Actually, the only two unifying factors were Jesus Christ and a love of music.

The "Master's Madrigal" was formed by a group of people who desired to bring glory to God. A madrigal is a group that sings to a King. Because they serve the King of Kings as their Master, the "Madrigal" has joined voices to bring glory and praise to King Jesus.

Student Missions Impact is the missionary arm of the student body. The S.M.I. council is composed of officers elected by the student body and the leader of each prayer band. This year officers were: president, Don Baker; vice president, Larry Whitson; secretary-treasurer, Carroll Ann Goon.

The missionary offering which is taken each Friday will be divided with 80% going for our summer missionaries and 20% to be used for a special project. Last year the project was tuition aid for Bible school students in Jimma, Ethiopia. This year we have the following summer missionary applicants: John McCullough, OCSC, Greece; Jon Schrag, Practical Missionary Training, Central America; Brian Liebe, Greater Europe Missions, Europe; and Mike Queiroz, Apostolic Christian Church, Brazil.

Conference

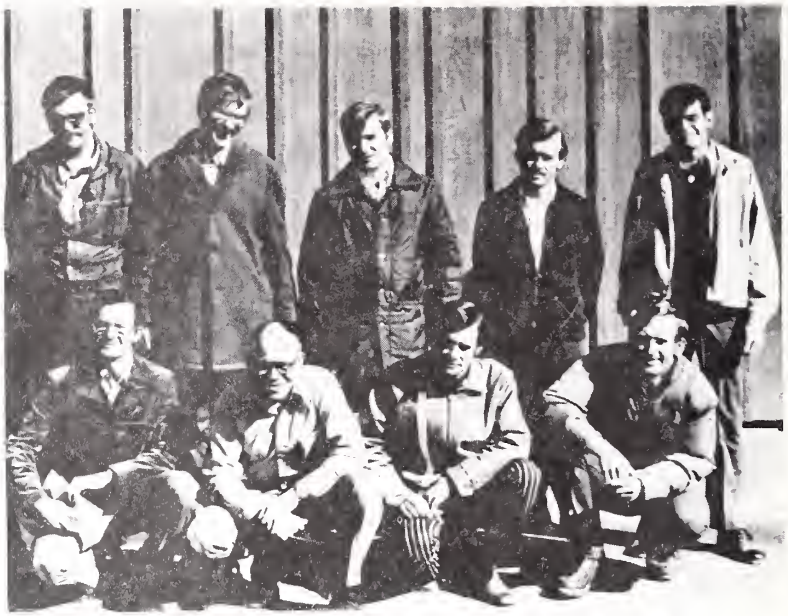
Our missions conference was held 18-22 February. We had Dr. W. Robert Cook from Conservative Baptist Seminary, Portland, Oregon as our Bible teacher and Marvin Rosenthal from Friends of Israel Gospel Ministry, Inc. as our featured missionary speaker. We also had C.P. Tarkington representing OCSC, Roger (Bert) Banzhaf representing CMML, Curtis Jimerson representing TEAM, Joe Charles representing WEF, and Darwin Merril representing Wings of Faith Mission. We were thrilled and challenged by the messages from God's Word and by the excellent reports from the field.

The week was capped off with the banquet Friday night at Judson Baptist Church.

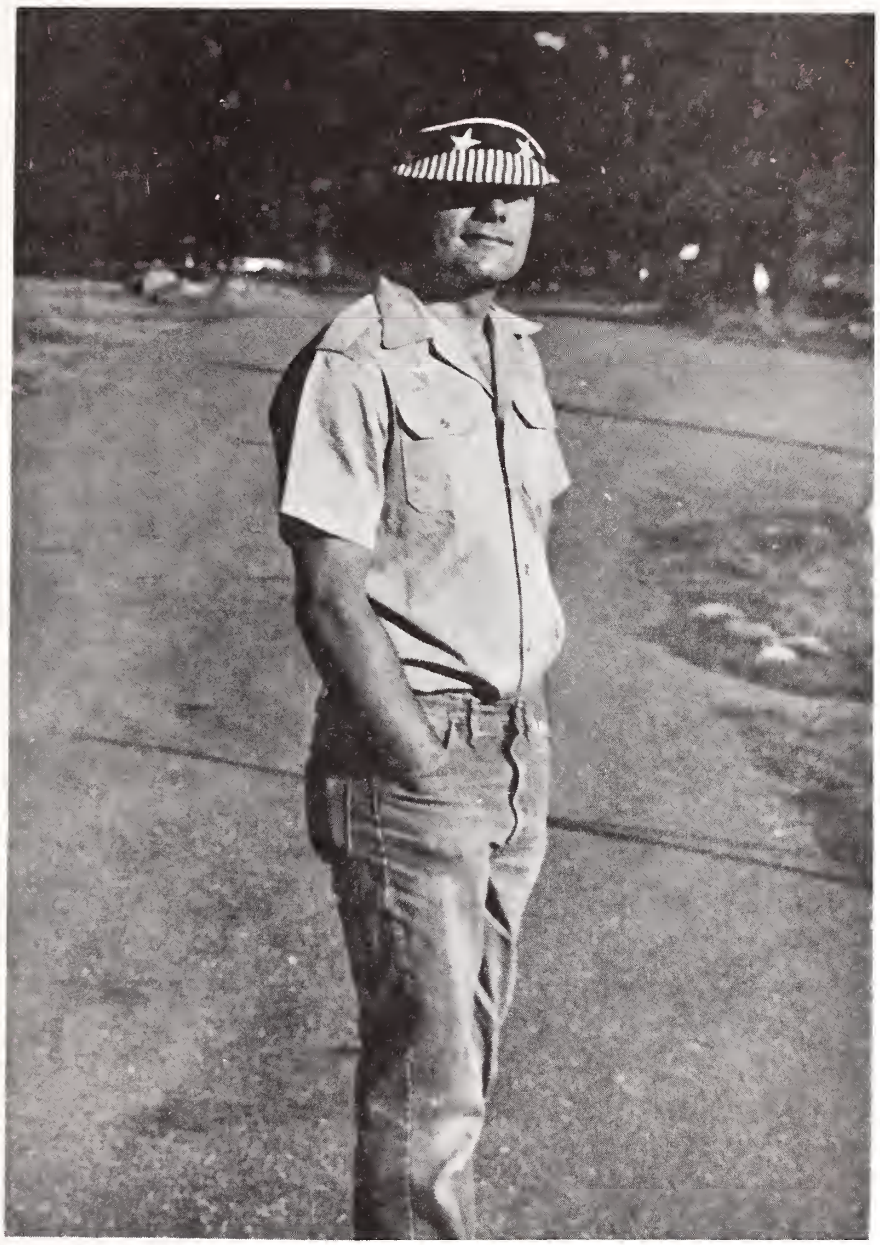
prayer...

Prayer band leaders were: North America, Larry Harper; South America, Mike Queiroz; Africa, Doug Curtis; Jewish, Rob Van Horn; Servicemen, Jim Dickinson; Wycliffe, Claude Tunstall; Europe, Mark Carlton; Asia, John McCullough.

The prayer bands meet weekly and pray about specific needs and offer praise for answered prayer in their areas.



jot & tittle



Yearbook Editor - "Jack, why does a school this size, in which everybody knows everybody else and what's going on, need a newspaper?"

Jack - "It's true that everyone knows what's going on. They just read the 'Jot and Tittle' to find out who got caught."
